Rampant Family,

February 14th marked more than Valentine's Day for many schools, including those in Pitt County, as it was the 100th Day of School. In elementary schools one could find a variety activities celebrating the day.

With the spring semester being in full swing at the high school level commemoration of the 100th Day of School is not seldom recognized. However, there is plenty of activity to go around during this time of year, especially at Rose High. And, that includes Valentine's Day not going by without the J.H. Rose Chorus conducting their annual event. The chorus delivered entertainment and joy to students and staff alike with their Singing Telegrams.

A week prior, J.H. Rose hosted the Chamber of Commerce's Leadership Institute for the third year in a row. Our Culinary Arts program served a gourmet meal while Link Crew members provided informative tours. The organizer shared the following:

"Thank you for an excellent day today! From lunch to the information and tours, you all did an outstanding job, as always. As we were riding on the bus, many participants were talking about how much they didn't know about J.H. Rose and how impressed they are with all you offer in and out of the classroom."

Later that week, faculty members were able to share our course offerings with rising 9th graders and current students at the J.H. Rose Curriculum Fair.

Our students have been active in competition as well with the Rose Book Wars team placing 2nd in the county competition. The Mock Trial Green Team will advance to the state competition after their recent regional win. The school also received recognition from The Printing Industry of the Carolinas, Inc. (PICA) for student's graphic design work. The piece was awarded Best of High School Division.

I close with a special congratulations to Ms. Adina Midgette for her recognition as Pitt County School's Cafeteria Manager of the Year.

For your reflection:

Goals are the links in the chain that connect activity to accomplishment.

Academic Boosters Fund Spring Semester Grants

...enhancing teaching and learning

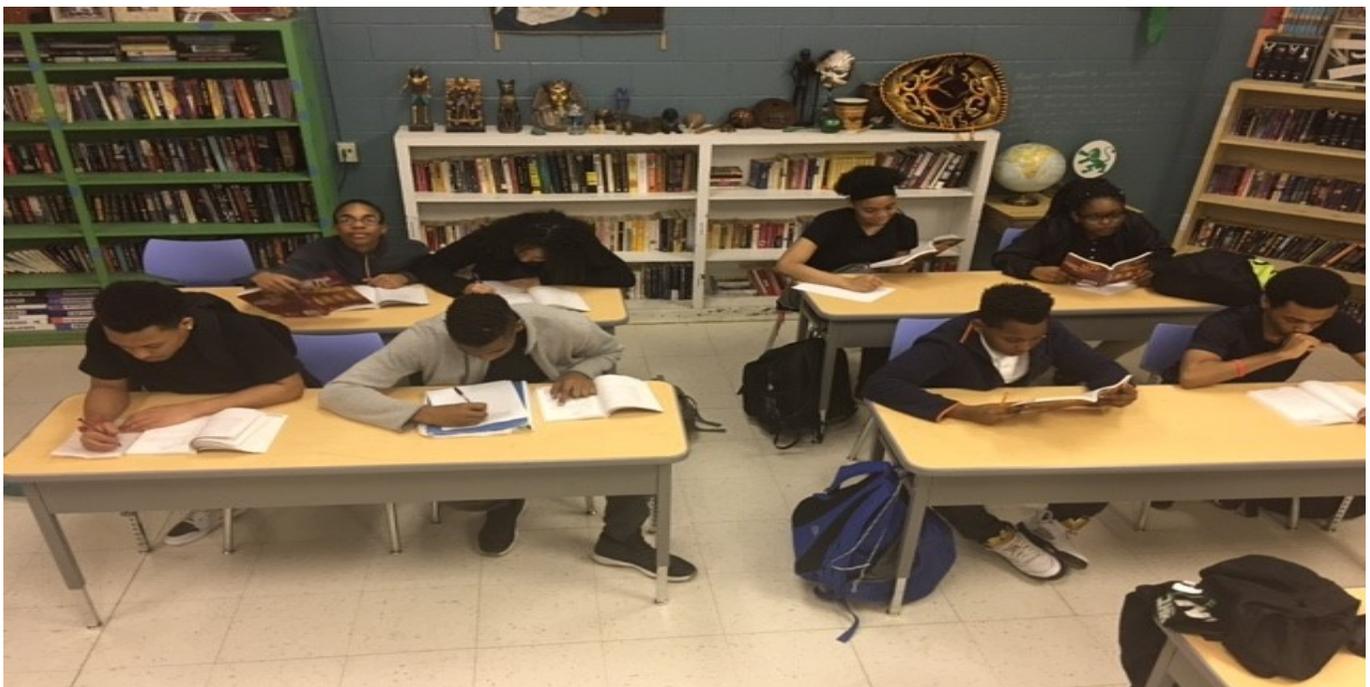

Grant Feature

Ninth and 10th grade English teachers received an Academic Boosters grant in the Fall for Vocabulary Power Plus for the ACT workbooks. Other high schools in the district had implemented these workbooks into their lessons and seen great success in student assessments.

Mrs. Medlin, 10th grade English teacher, reports that “these workbooks are valuable resources for our students (not just those college bound or planning to take the ACT). Our students see and use the words in context, enhance critical reading skills with inferences, and use the words in various writing practices. These lessons are also cross-curricular because passages involve topics from science, social studies, literature, and humanities.”

The use of these workbooks does more than get students ready for college, they help students improve vocabulary skills for all types of testing, like benchmark tests and End of Course tests, as well as the ACT and SAT. The workbooks also help to lay a foundation for students in English I and II classes so that they will be better prepared for upper level English classes.

The English department is highly appreciative of this grant money and all that it provides for our students. Thank you, Academic Boosters members, for your contributions that make this valuable resource possible for ALL 9th and 10th grade students at J. H. Rose!

February Spirit Award

Congratulation to Terry Claiborne the JHR Rampant Spirit Award winner of the month! Ms. Claiborne gets this award for her outstanding service as JH Rose's bookkeeper for 19 years. Ms. Claiborne expertly manages the finances at JH Rose with integrity and in the best interest of the school. Ms. Claiborne counts it a joy to work with the students, staff, and parents through the years; having made so many lasting friendships. Ms. Claiborne believes that, "All of us at this GREAT SCHOOL are devoted to being the very best! Faculty, Staff, Students, Teachers, Parents-ALL!"

Ms. Claiborne shared that, "The Academic Boosters and the Advisory Council work hard & tireless. They give so much. They are devoted to making a difference in the lives of our students and teachers. The Boosters and Council Members appreciate excellent work and reward the students and teachers throughout each school year. I am happy & humbled to be in this role to serve members of both groups in any way possible." Ms. Claiborne believes that careful planning and budgeting of finances are skills that every person should master to be successful.

Exciting New Opportunity: AP Capstone

Mrs. Jacobson, Mr. Flinchbaugh, and Mrs. Hutchinson worked together have applied to be an AP Capstone school, and were recently approved. JH Rose is the first school in the East to get this designation! We are so proud of your efforts!

"AP Capstone™ is a College Board program that equips students with the independent research, collaborative teamwork, and communication skills that are increasingly valued by colleges. It cultivates curious, independent, and collaborative scholars and prepares them to make logical, evidence-based decisions."

<https://advancesinap.collegeboard.org/ap-capstone>

Sophomores are the first group who can become a part of the AP Capstone program by signing up for AP Seminar next year. If they successfully take AP Seminar as a junior and AP Research as a senior, as well as any other four AP classes at any point in high school, they will get an AP Capstone diploma.

PRESIDENT VOLUNTEER SERVICE AWARD

The President's Volunteer Service Award is a way of recognizing student volunteerism on a national level. It is an award that celebrates the spirit of the community and the dedication of those members who offer their time and service to others.

What: It is a national award recognizing outstanding commitment to volunteerism in the community.

How: Students keep track of their volunteer hours during the calendar year and complete the form found on the JHR PVSA website. They have their qualifying supervisor sign off on their volunteer hours on the forms after filling out the form. Students submit all completed forms by February 28th.

Dates: JHR uses the calendar year for PVSA applicants, Jan 1-Dec 31. All volunteer hours accumulated during that time frame is then submitted and verified. Forms are due by Feb 28th, however exceptions can be made. The paperwork is sent off in March to ensure students have the opportunity to receive their awards and recognition during awards day.

Forms: Here is the JHR website for PVSA, where the forms can be found: <https://sites.google.com/a/pitt.k12.nc.us/jhrpvsa/home>

Why: Many students are already volunteering in the community. This award recognizes their commitment to volunteerism and the work they have put in bettering their community. Aside from strengthening the bonds of the community and helping those in need, many colleges and jobs look for students that are well-rounded and committed to serving others through volunteering or non-profit work. It is a benefit to both the community and to the student.

Whom: Submit forms to Stephanie Noles, noless@pitt.k12.nc.us or in person, room 314. JHR is one of very few certifying organizations in Pitt County. There have recently been other chapters express interest, but aside from Pitt Community Partners and St. Peter's, JHR has been a leader in this area, recognizing 5-10 students each year with the PVSA.

Looking for a way to get involved?

The J.H. Rose Advisory Council is seeking parents to serve on the council. The Advisory Council is composed of the Principal, Monica Jacobson, nine at-large members, the presidents of each of the parent booster organizations and a representative from SGA.

The Advisory Council meets the second Monday night of every month during the academic year and is responsible for selling Rampant wear throughout the year during the school day and at other various school events.

The purpose of the Advisory Council is to:

Advise the principal on all aspects of student life, including the impact of policies and administrative decisions on students and their families.

Facilitate Communication among parents, the community and school leadership.

Coordinate the efforts of the booster/parent organizations, SGA and student clubs.

Encourage parents and students to participate in school organizations.

Promote school spirit and academic excellence.

Please submit a letter of interest to jhradvisory@gmail.com by Friday, March 10, 2017.

Your formal letter of interest should include the following criteria:

1. Your child's name and year at present and any other upcoming students.
2. Work experience and any PTA's or school groups that you are involved in.
3. Reasons why you may wish to be part of the council.

Please contact Barbara Dominick for more information. bdominick1@yahoo.com or 404-889-0207.
